Dear Jimmie:

Your memo of April 5 to the Action staff was a good one. I appreciated so much the frank way you talked to us about the promotion of Action.

I know of none of the men on the staff, in my personal knowledge, who are out of accord with the purposes for which the paper exists. I do know that many of the men on the staff, including myself, are extremely busy and actually overwhelmed by the work they are doing. I am involved in at least five different areas of activity, any one of which could be a full-time work. I think that may be the reason that none of us appear to be pushing Action like you want us to do.

I do plan to continue mentioning the possibility of Action being sent to the congregations everywhere I go. As I have indicated to you, I am not holding many gospel meetings these days and when I do go into a situation on a short visit, I rarely have the time to leisurely talk about matters other than directly relating to my visit.

Thank you for giving us encouragement along this line. I appreciate what is happening and I am thankful to God for the increase in circulation.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
